from the bestselling author of Love's Executioner and When Nietzsche Wept comes a provocative exploration of the unusual relationships three therapists form with their patients. Seymour is a therapist of the old school who blurs the boundary of sexual propriety with one of his clients. Marshal, who is haunted by his own obsessive compulsive behaviors, is troubled by the role money plays in his dealings with his patients. Finally, there is Ernest Lash, driven by his sincere desire to help and his faith in psychoanalysis, he invents a radically new approach to therapy: a totally open and honest relationship with a patient that threatens to have devastating results. Exposing the many lies that are told on and off the psychoanalyst's couch, lying on the couch gives readers a tantalizing, almost illicit glimpse at what their therapists might really be thinking during their sessions. Fascinating, engrossing, and relentlessly intelligent, it ultimately moves readers with a denouement of surprising humanity and redemptive faith.

Written in Irvin Yalom's inimitable story-telling style, Staring at the Sun is a profoundly encouraging approach to the universal issue of mortality. In this magisterial opus, capping a lifetime of work and personal experience, Dr. Yalom helps us recognize that the fear of death is at the heart of much of our anxiety. Such recognition is often catalyzed by an awakening experience: a dream or loss, the death of a loved one, divorce, loss of a job or home, illness, trauma, or aging. Once we confront our own mortality, Dr. Yalom writes, we are inspired to rearrange our priorities, communicate more deeply with those we love, appreciate more keenly the beauty of life, and increase our willingness to take the risks necessary for personal fulfillment.

The Gift of Therapy is the new book from the bestselling author of Love's Executioner, the culmination of Master Psychiatrist Dr. Irvin Yalom's forty-five years' work as a therapist. This book illustrates, through real case studies, how patients and therapists alike can get the most out of therapy. Presented as eighty-five tips for beginner therapists, Yalom shares his own fresh approach and the insights he has gained while treating his patients. Personal and sometimes provocative, Yalom includes some unorthodox suggestions: let the patient matter to you; acknowledge your errors; create a new therapy for each patient; three kinds of therapist self-disclosure: revealing the therapist's personal life, use of caution, full interpretation of a dream. Forget it, Freud was not always wrong. This is an entertaining, informative, and insightful read for both beginner and experienced therapists, patients, and everyone with an interest in the subject.
